An Italian Band and a Japanese Geishi Girl Introduced Into Roof Garden shows and a Spanish Bancer Into

An acrobatic exhibition with Wagner's Tannhauser" as a musical accompaniment made a number in the new vaudeville Mil at Paradise Garden last night that stirred an audience so that it arose and cheered. The principal performer was an Italian named Creatore, leader of a military band of sixty. The music was incidental An auditor who loudly declared he had Sousa "skinned to death" expressed a reractime The curtain rose to reveal the dity men. Then the lights were lowered

He is very tall, dark, with long, black, shagey hair. He stood as only geniuses stand, a languid, tired, poetic look extending from his eves down through his entire form to his gracefully bent knees. He strolled to the footlights, which were unused, so that the greenish white calcium made his face more conspicuous. To describe the harlequinade that he danced to the sexte "Lucia" would be impossible. It must be seen. Occasionally he swept his hand over his loose, waving hair. As the selection progressed he became more excited, mopping his hair more frequently. At times his body tumbled all over, and his gestures were supremely comical. With mad rushes he ran at his musicians. With sudden violence he once or twice divedat the second trombone. But that vitally important player didn't mind a bit. Indeed, all of the musicians were self-posseed men and took no heed of Creatore. They didn't mind a bit when he dramatiurged them on to a climax that they had reached four or five bars before. But Creature kept faithfully to the part as he creatore kept latinity to the part as he had rehearsed it. Mopping of the hair and dives among his musicians finally reached the great climax at the end of the election, when, with arms held high and trembling, he leaned far back as though Ponta, a Geisha girl, was introduced ato Japan by Night. She sang Japanese songs with a companion and played a banjo for Akamatsu, a Japanese actor, to dance in the manner of his native land. These things were additional to These things were additional to the usual performance of "The Mikado."

Veda Velasco danced like the Spaniard she was in the second act of "The Mascot" at Terrace Garden. This interpolation revealed a slim, lithe and very dark woman, who did not efface a memory of Carmencita, yet was a sightly example of the same general kind of fiery Spanish dancer.
The rain for a second time prevented a Monday night display of special fireworks for children by Pain at Manhattan Beach. Brighton horse racing will be works for children by Pain at Mannattan Beach. Brighton horse racing will be honored this evening. Germans will be appealed to on Thursday with Emperor Wil-liam, Prince Henry and Bismarck in flery minstrelsy by Primrose & Dockstader's company passed into its last week at Manhattan Beach. "Florodora" is to follow.

Lion Palace made a big light at Broadway and 110th street. This resort is open with music and vaudeville on the open roof or indoors to suit the weather.

The steamer Grand Republic had Control of the steamer Grand Republic had Control of the steamer of specialists.

the Herald Square. The Eden Musée had solo singers in the hibition.

The Madcaps, those four athletic girls who had been dancing remarkably at Paradise Gardens, were in the vaudeville bill at Keith's, where the Kaufmann troupe in bicycle feats, Lizzie Evans and Harry Mills in "The Country Dance" and Trovollo in the country Dance of the features.

Mills in "The Country Dance" and Trovollo in ventriloquism were other features.

Crane brothers and Belmont introduced 'The Mudtown Minstrels' at Tony Pastor's. Variety and vitality were given to the show by Manly and Rose, Field and Wooley, Frank O'Brien, the Bells, the Velles and the Barrows. Three Proctor theatres interspersed long

Three Proctor theatres interspersed long plays, short plays and variety sets.

The Madison Square will be the first of Charles Frohman's theatres to reopen. The New Clown," a noted London farce, will be given there on Aug 25. Jameson Lee Finney and Jessie Busley will have the leading roles.

the leading roles.

The Puss Band which is to remain all summer at the St. Nicholas Garden, had a large audience last night. The orchestral numbers are varied by the best available ocal and instrumental soloists.

The Kaltenborn Concerts which opened heir sixth week last night at the Circle Auditorium will continue until the 1st of September. To-night Beethoven's Fifth Symphony will be played.

NEGRO TESTS SUFFRAGE LAW. Louisiana Judge Decides Against Ryanes on Constitutional Point.

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 28.—The Louisiana District Court to-day decided the case of David I. Ryanes, the negro who brought of David I. Ryanes, the negro who brought suit to be registered in order to test the suffrage provisions of the new Louislana constitution. The money for the suit was provided by negroes by popular subscription in the hope of having declared null and unconstitutional the new suffrage system which disfranchises most of them. The Ryanes case was taken as a test one. Judge St. Paul decided against the negro, holding that even if the "grandfather clause, which admits illiterate whites without property to the suffrage, be unconclause, which admits illiterate whites with-out property to the suffrage, be uncon-stitutional, it does not affect the case of Ryanes, as one of the sections of a Con-stitution may be invalid without destroying the whole Constitution. Ryanes's right to vote, he said, was affected in no way by the "grandfather" clause, and therefore the court could not pass on that question, which is the only doubtful provision in the

The negroes will try to carry the case to the United States Supreme Court.

The funeral of Col. Edward L. Langford was held yesterday at his late home, 181 was held yesterday at his late home, 181
Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn, the Rev.
I G Jackson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Flatbush, officiating. Six of Col.
Langford's nephews acted as pallbearers.
Among those in attendance were Capt.
George T Halloway, a son of Mrs. Langford, her brothers, Gen. William H. Carter,
U S A., and Mr. Vauly Carter; Gen. James Jourdan and Gen. James McLeer. The interment was in Greenwood.

Treasure Ship From Nome. SEATTLE, Wash., July 28.-The steamer

Roanoke, known in the Northwest as the Alaska treasure ship, arrived to-day from Nome, bringing a million in gold dust, the product of the Nome diggings and the largest shipment made this season. The mutput of the district this year will exceed that of the two past seasons.

In the Werld of Fashion

Sin's Woman's Page first. This is one fea-ture that makes THE SUN a desirable home.

IN NEWPORT SOCIETY. rep Lawn Tennis Tournament —Pie for Miss Reserveit's Vist.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 28 -- The ladies of the cottage colony have gotten up a handlcap lawn tennis tournament, doubles, and the play began this afternoon at the Casin courts. There are eleven pairs entered and each player is contributing toward the purchase of cups for the winners. The reult of the play to-day could not be learne other than Mrs. Barger-Wallach and Miss Barger beat Miss Maud Wetmore and Miss Busk, and Miss Anna Sands and Miss Livingston beat Miss Hatch and Mrs. H. N Potter. Society people who are interested in the tournament picked Miss Wetmore and her partner to win, but in their defeat to-day Miss Anna Sands and Miss Livingsten are the next favorites. It is to be a gay August in Newport lo-day it was learned that in addition the balls already announced Mrs. H. Morti-mer Brooks will give a ball in honor of her and a white calcium flittered about a door-way in the rear. The musicians arose and gagement to Mr. E. V. R. Thayer, Jr., was recently announced, and that Mrs. Ogden Goelst is to give a similar function. Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting is also arranging to give a large entertainment in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt, who will arrive in Newport as her guest on Friday of this week Miss Roosevelt will remain at Newport for wo weeks and it is safe to say that there will be a continuous round of social func tions in her honor. It was also learned tions in her honor. It was also learned to-day that President and Mrs. Roosevelt will come to Newport on the 1st of September on the Mayflower.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Martin returned last night from their wedding trip and are at their cottage on the avenue. Mrs. Martin will give a large reception in a few days, when she will show the wedding gifts that she received. ifts that she received.

gifts that she received.

Luncheons were given to-day by Mre.
Louis Q. Jones, Mrs. N. D. Hatch and Mrs.
Charles Danielson, a reception by Miss
Taylor and dinners this evening by Mrs.
Elbridge T. Gerry, Mrs. Daniel B. Fearing,
Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Charles B.
Hillhouse and Mrs. William Watts Sherman. Miss Laura Swan, daughter of Mrs.
Elisha Dyer, gave a theatre party at Freebody Park, after which she entertained them at supper at Berger's.

Mrs. Brewster of San Francisco is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock and Mrs.
Norman Whitehouse is visiting Mrs. E.
Moore Robinson.

Moore Robinson.

Miss Marion Fish and Mr. Stuyvesant
Fish arrived at Newport to-day for the

E. S. Willard of New York is the of Mr. I. Townsend Burden at Fair-

Mr. E. S. Willard of New York is the guest of Mr. I. Townsend Burden at Fairlawn.

The report of the engagement of Miss Kathleen Neilson and Mr. Reginald Vanderlilt continues to be the all-absorbing topic of conversation in the cottage colony. Miss Neilson is only 19 years of age and is one of the most attractive young women in the cottage colony. It is said that the engagement will be formally announced before the season wanes, and that the wedding will take place here next spring. Mr. Vanderbilt is spending much of his time at his newly acquired farm in Portsmouth, which he is having theroughly remodelled, and it is understood that Miss Neilson is assisting in the selection of many of the interior decorations. of the interior decorations.

Mr. Frederick C. Havemeyer appeared on the avenue this morning with several or the avenue this morning with several or the avenue of the automobile collision of Saturday. His machine, which got the worst of the smash-up, a not in commission and it, as well as Mr. Blair's machine, is in the repair shop. Miss Anna Leary, who arrived at her villa a few days ago, will begin this week her regular Thursday musicales, which will continue throughout the season.

Mr. Delancy Kountze of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt at Oakland Farm.

The steamer Grand Republic had Conterno's band and a stage show of specialists. A Brighton Beach popular exhibit was one of the Santos-Dumont air ships.

Cherry Blossom Grove was restored to vaudeville with a large and familiar company, including Eva Tanguay and the Redways retained from "The Chaperons."

The three extravaganzas which, by the merits of fine equipment and elever performances, had gone two-thirds through the summer prosperously were repeated. They were "The Wild Rose" at the Knickerbocker, "A Chinese Honeymoon" at the Casino and "The Defender" at the Herrald Square.

Harry was her only son and supported Harry was her only son and supported her. He was an inspector at the freight terminal of the Lackawanna Railroad at the foot of Clymer street.

On Saturday night Mrs. Schoenbaum dreamed that she had seen her boy lying dead on the ground before her. The dream emained vividly in her mind when she awoke. She told Harry about it at break-am 1?"

"But it frightens me," she said.
"Don't be foolish," the boy retorted.
"I'm going down to Coney Island and Schoenbaum asked him not to leave her. She said she would be all upset until he came home again. The boy told her that she had better come along with him, and she put on her bonnet and locked up the flat and went.

On the way down the mother asked On the way down the mother asked him once or twice not to go into the water at all. He laughed at her and finally lost patience and said he wished she would forget that dream. She said she couldn't. When he left her to go to the bathhouse, she begged him not to go very far out when he went into the water. He hurried away laughing.

Harry must have gone some distance Harry must have gone some distance up the beach in order to get away from his mother's importunities. She did not find him among the bathers when she began to look for him among those who were coming out of the surf. She went further and further to the east until she was beyond all the bathers.

Some distance out, in the first line of breakers she away a man's body, washing

Some distance out, in the first line of breakers she saw a man's body, washing back and forth, just under the roll of the waves. She began to scream. Men came from the bathing beach and went out into the water and brought her son back to her and laid him on the sand at her feet. He was dead.

Grandson of Charles H. Dow Drowned. Elliott S. Weeden, aged 7 years, a grand-son of Charles H. Dow, of Dow, Jones & Co., publishers of the Wall Street Journal, was frowned on Sunday by falling from a boat in Glenmere Lake, near Goshen, N. Y. The in Glenmere Lake, near Goshen, N. Y. The boy left this city on Saturday to make a visit at the home of John W. Harney who is business manager of the Wall Street Journal and who lives at Florida, N. Y. The lake is near the house and yields an abundant crop of water lilies. Young Weeden and two of Barney's children—a boy and a girl—went in the boat to get some lilies. The Weeden boy leaned far out to pick one of the flowers and fell into the lake. His body was recovered and was brought from Florida to Mr. Dow's home in Brooklyn.

Coroners Want to Name Their Own Clerks. The Board of Coroners for the borough of Manhattan yesterday asked the Municipal Civil Service Commission to exempt rom competitive examination the position of property clerk and the positions of four of property cierk and the positions of roof private clerks. The private clerks get a salary of $2,000 a year and the property clerk $1,500. These cierks are holdovers from the Tammany administration. The applica-tion of the Board of Coroners will be con-sidered at a public hearing to-morrow af-ternace at 3 o'clock.

Hobbs, Shot in Saloon Brawl, Dead. George A. Hobbs, who was shot in a saloon brawl in Fulton street, this city, on Friday fternoon, died yesterday morning of his njuries in Hudson street hospital. Konkei, the bartender who is charged with shooting Hobbs, was arraigned yesterday before Coroner Jackson and held without bail pending the inquest.

BABY PANTHER STILL FREE.

THE BRONX IS CALM AND THE SMALL BOY REJOICES.

Mdn't He Seethe Ferucious Monster in at Least Seventeen Places? -- Amateur Bunters and the Police Roam the Wilderness -- Park Vieltore Nos Afraid.

That panther kitten which escaped from the Zoological Park in the Brong on Sunday still at large in spite of the efforts of all day yesterday looking for the beast A squad of the park employees was sent out half a dozen times in the course of the day to look for the panther in several pleases where he hadn't been, but where imagina tive persons thought they had heard a rustle and seeh a mysterious movement of the underbrush. The ten policemen who, make up the rve of the Bronx Park Police were sent from their comfortable quarters in the Lorillard mansion early in the day with instructions to bring in the panther dead or alive. They didn't obey instructions The rest of the panther hunters were volunteers and most of the volunteers were small boys with air guns, Pourth of July pistols and bows and arrows. Some had slings.

It was a great day for the boys of The Bronx. They marched in armies along the Unionport and Boston roads and explored the wilderness round about West Farms, but they didn't catch the panther. They saw him, of course. Every boy saw him. Most of the boys wounded him and followed his trail till the rain washed out the brood The boys who didn't wound him failed because they had to jump for their lives when he sprang.

When the beast escaped Director Horna day of the park said he was worth $75. That estimate was altogether too small. That estimate was altogether too small. That panther is worth $75,000 or else there are a lot of juvenile liars in The Bronx.

Because, according to the crossed-heart and hope-to-die reports of the boy hunters that panther was lesping eighty feet from the ground to the top of a hemlock tree in the Botanical garden at the same time he was crouching beside the Unionport road, three miles away, waiting to spring on a herd of goats. Five minutes later he was easing barnyard ducks on Pelham on a herd of goats. Five minutes later he was easing barnyard ducks on Pelham avenue and at the same time was leaping from ditch to ditch across the Boston Road, heading for the buffalo range. According to further reports the panther was crouch-ing for a spring in seventeen places at

As a reign of terror producer the fugi-tive is a failure. Yesterday was one of the days when an admission fee of 25 cents is charged to the park. But in spite of that and the uncomfortable weather and the reports that there was a panther loose there was a big attendance and enough money was taken at the gate to buy half a dozen panthers. What the visitors feared most was that they wouldn't see the panther.

Just inside the Pelham avenue entrance was a new sign the first word of which in big letters was: Warning! That cheered folks up. They thought for a second till they saw in small letters

Don't pick the wild flowers.

Several reporters came together in the chase when their horses happened to run away and collided on the Unionport road. That was about the time the storm struck The Bronx and there was a good imitation of a cloudburst.

It happened that these same reporters were together last fall following District Attorney Jerome in his "whirlwind campaign." They went to a West Farms cider stube and shook dice to see who was swifter. Jerome or the panther. The panther won, best two out of three throws. her won, best two out of three throng.

Director Hornaday said last night; "We aven't much hope of catching the panther.

He will probably be shot within a day or two. If he escapes he will make his way two. two. If he escapes he will make his way north to regions where there are fewer people. Nobody need be afraid of him. The panther is cowardly and there are not his having attacked human beings of his having attacked human beings. This one will get his growth in two years, and then he'll be about the size of a New-foundland dog."

WESTCHESTERGETS THE "YEGGS"

They're Positively Identified Here by the Trolley Conductor.

Thomas O'Brien and Frank Collins alias Frank Carr, the two "yeggs" who were arrested Saturday night on the Bowery charged with being implicated in the recent safe-breaking at Port Chester, in the office of the Stamford trolley company, were arraigned in the Tombs police court this morning before Magistrate Deuel and turned over to the Sheriff of Westchester

Before O'Brien and Collins were taken Before O'Brien and Collins were taken to court they were identified at Police Headquarters by George W. Curtis, the conductor who was gagged and tied to a chair at the time the robbery was committed on July 21. The identification by Curtis was positive. He recognized both of them and pointed out O'Brien as the man by whom he was overpowered and tied and by whom one of his comrades was knocked senseless.

knocked senseless.

The men were taken to Port Chester in the afternoon and were arraigned before Police Justice Wakefield. They waived examination and were held to await the action of the Westchester county Grand Jury. Later they were locked up in the White Plains jail.

White Plains jail.

The detectives have learned that the safe blowers had a young woman with them, who acted as decoy. It is said that after the robbers this woman drove the quintette of robbers in a carriage to the Sound dock at Greenwich and left them there. Then she proceeded eastward, to fool the sleuths, and abandoned the rig.

ENGINEER FREEMAN OUT.

And It Seems to Be Up to Ex-Commissioner Dougherty to Pay Him.

Commissioner Monroe of the Department of Water Supply made it known yesterday that John R. Freeman, the $10,000-a-year consulting engineer, whose services ex-Commissioner Doughtery was so anxious to obtain, is no longer connected with the department.

Some weeks before he resigned Mr.

Dougherty employed Mr. Freeman in a special capacity and asked the Aldermen to appropriate $2,500 to pay him for three months' work. The Aldermen refused and a day or two later Mr. Dougherty re-

Mr. Dougherty announced that if the city would not pay Mr. Freeman he would do so himself. This he will-probably have an Grocer's Boy and Baker's Boy. Tired of Liverpool Life. Get Here.

William Johnson, a Liverpool boy of 14, who got tired of long hours in a grocery store at his home, and Amos Martin, aged 11, dissatisfied with the life of a baker's apprentice, got here yesterday aboard the White Star freighter Cevic. They stowed away under the eanvas cover of a lifeboat and showed up on the fourth day out because their provisions had given out. They were lectured by the captain, put to work in the galley, and, when the Cevic docked, were transferred to Ellis Island. They probably will be sent back.

NO BOOTBLACKS ON ERIE BOATS.

There Were Many Complaints Compla New of Their Absence. The Erio Railroad has followed up its expulsion of news and candy agents from the aisles of its trains by putting the bootblacks off its ferryboats. J. M. Cherry, the Erie's Superintendent of Floating Equipment, said yesterday that the complaints of the passengers on ferryboats had come in so hard and fast and of such bitter tone that there was nothing else to do.

The Italian who had the contract w asked at first to see that the boys did not olicit trade. It was thought that the complaints would cease if the bootblacks did not approach a passenger until he signalled to them. Mr. Cherry said that he was convinced of the sincerity of the contractor's effort to make the boys observe this rule, but the boys still solicited most aggresbut the boys still solicited most aggres-sively and the complaints continued.

It was urged in some of them that the nasal shriek of "Shi-i-ine" with which the boys passed up and down the men's cabin was the direct cause of many cases of nervous prostration, and that the boys had a habit of gathering around any im-pecunious young clerk who had forgotten to polish his shoes before starting for work and advertising the omission most offen-sively to all the other passes.

and advertising the omission most offen-sively to all the other passengers. The contract with the boss bootblack was ter-minated on Sunday. Yesterday none of the passengers on the Pavonia ferry could have his shoes blacked on the boats. Some of the passengers were inclined to indignation. They said that they had always found the boys respectful and quiet. If there was occasionally some disquiet. If there was occasionally some dis-play of oversmartness it was to be at-tributed to the encouragement of the pas-sengers rather than to original depravity of the young men. It is just possible that the removal of the boys will be followed by even more complaints than their be-layior occusioned.

havior occasioned.

All the ferry lines are supplied with bootblacks by Italian padrones, who pay high prices to the companies for the privilege. The Pennsylvania company gets something like $5,000 a year for its ferry bootblack privilege. The other companies get from $2,000 to $5,000 a year. Mr. Cherry said that the Eric company thought it worth while to lose the few thousand which the railroad profited by its bootblack contract in order to abolish the cause for so much complaint from the passengers. It could not be learned that any of the other lines contemplated following the Eric's lead.

WATT ALIMONY, $100 A WEEK. Mrs. Archibald Watt Asked for $250 -Counsel Fee of $1,000.

Archibald Watt, formerly Commodor of the American Yacht Club, was directed vesterday by Justice Ball of the Supreme Court to pay his wife Adele F. $100 a week alimony and a counsel fee of $1,000 in her suit against him for separation on allegations of abandonment and cruelty. She had asked for $250 a week alimony and a counsel fee of $2,500, saying that her husband is well able to meet these sums and spends $100,000 a year in maintaining the yacht American. Watt said he gets along on $30,000 or so a year.

Watt is a favored relative of his aunt. Mary G. Pinkney, and his large expenditures on yachts have been the result of her bounty. She had acquired large holdings of realty in this city from the paternal grandfather of Watt and the rise in land values in Harlem made her very wealthy. Since the marriage of the parties in 1897 and up to their eeparation last month they resided on the yacht American, which was anchored most of each year off the recreation pier at 129th street, N. R., or opposite in the stream. Watt declares that his wife neglected her wifely duties for the society of a clergyman, whom he did not name, and he accused her of spending too much of her time in the society of other men.

The present order of Justice Hall will hold the the tried of the case. It may be eacht American. Watt said he gets along The present order of Justice Hall will hold good to the trial of the case. It may be reached for trial in November.

HOURS ON ELEVATED ROADS And 88.50 a Day for Motormen, Without Regard to Previous Condition. A committee of six engineers, representing the engineers and motormen of the Manhattan Railway Company, waited on Vice-President Skitt at his office in the Western Union Building yesterday and submitted a proposed new agreement. According o the committee, it is the intention of the company to pay the firemen who become company to pay the firemen who become engineers or motormen only $3 a day, while those who are at present engineers or motormen are to receive their present wages of $3.50 a day. The new agreement contains a provision that all engineers or motormen shall be paid $3.50 a day and that the working day shall be nine hours.

Mr. Skitt had a friendly talk with the committee and said he would give the matter his careful consideration. careful consideration.

Hugger Caught in the Tenderloin.

Two women appealed to Policeman Zenodocious of the Tenderloin station yesterday afternoon to arrest a man at the corner of Forty-first street and Sixth avenue, whom they said had tried to hug them. The man described himself at the West Thirtieth street station as George Howard of 243 West Twenty-third street.

Smallpox in Hospital for Insane.

Miss Cora Moore, a nurse in the Long Island Hospital for the Insane at Flatbush, was removed on Sunday to the contagious disease hospital in Kingston avenue, Brooklyn, suffering from malignant smallpox.

All insane patients who came in contact with Miss Moore have been isolated and vaccinated. The doctors say that she could not have contracted the disease in the

The Weather.

The area of high pressure which was central on the North Atlantic coast, throwing off cooling winds, moved off yesterday and its place was ocwinds, moved off yesterday and its place was occupied by a low pressure, which reversed the conditions and caused warmer, sultry and showery weather in the Middle Atlantic and New England was the Control of the Middle Atlantic and New England in these districts in the evening. There was a second low pressure in the Northwest with a centre special Montana, and severe local storms in that over Montana, and severe local storms in that section, where it was also becoming warrier. There were a few scattered abowers in the Southern States. In the Central States it was generally cold.

In this city the day was cloudy and sultry and In this city the day was cloudy and suitry and much warmer, with a sharp drop from 54 to 66 degrees after the evening thunderstorm; highest temperature, 87 at 1 P M; wind generally fresh southerly during the day, shifting to northwest and blowing a gale during the thunderstorm; average humidity, 82 per cent.; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M., 28.95; 3

The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, and also by FEE Sun's thermometer at the street level, is shown in the an-

WASHINGTON PORECAST POR TO-DAY

For eastern New York, showers to-day, so warm in the interior: to-morrow, showers; fresh west to northwest winds becoming southwest. For New England, showers and thunderstorms For New England, showers and thunderstorms and not so warm to-day and to-m frow; light to fresh west to southwest winds.

For eastern Pennsylvania, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, New Jersey, showers and not so warm to-day; to-morrow fair and warmer; light variable winds.

For western Pennsylvania, western New Yorks, Ne For western Pennsylvania, western New York

rinds increasing Events in Society and Other Matters of interest to Women are more fully and intelligently handled by THE SUN and EVENING BUN than by other daily mediums.—Ade.

HER HAIR AN IMPROPER RED.

BRONNER LISTS THE EXTRAVA-GANCES OF HIS WIFE

in Replying to the Complaint in Her Separa tion Suit—The Court Says He Must Pay Her 860 a Month Until Case Is Tried—That Won't Hire Many Cabs.

Henry Bronner, a travelling salesman who is being sued in the Supreme Court by his wife Cora E. for a separation, dates their differences from the receipt of about $25,000 in a legacy by his wife and her undertaking of a boarding house at 604 Madi son avenue against his protests. By order of Justice Hall, made yesterday. Bronner is required to pay his wife $60 a month alimony and a counsel fee of $100 pending trial.

The Fronners married in 1897 and the wife is now but 24 years old. Pronner was earnhe was able to maintain his wife and their child Elia comfortably, but that his wife developed tastes so extravagan that he could not foot her bills. She had to have as many as six gowns, six hats and six pairs of shoes in a season, he says, and he remonstrated with her in vain. He says she is a large buyer of a variety of perfumes and expensive dyes, and further evers that she has dyed her hair "a very improper shade of red." On the branch of her extravagance he winds up by saying she has got the "hack habit," so that she always calls a cab when she wants to move

The legacy of $25,000 came to feed her extravagence at an opportune time, as Bronner says he found he could not stand the pace. His wife was ripping a swath fast through the $25,000, he says, when she hit on the idea of the boarding house. Bron-but he consented to become a boarder.

Bronner and his wife differ as to the sort of a boarder Bronner made. His wife says that he never paid any board. He says his wife flirted.

Bronner says that he had no regular place in the house, but was east about from pillar to post by his wife unless he kicked. He had been spoken to by his wife before other people in the house in ways that were insulting, and some in ways that were insulting, and some in ways that were insulting, and some in ways that were insulting. had been spoken to by his wife before other people in the house in ways that were in-sulting, and some nights she told him to camp out on the lounge in the parlor. After reading the papers on both sides Justice Hell said it is evident that the mar-riage has been a failure. He leaves the child with the mother, but permits the father to see it once a week.

THE SHERIDAN MURDER.

Plaster Casts of Footprints May Help Convict Detective's Assassins

The inquest in the case of Detective John Sheridan, who was shot to death on the morning of July 16, was begun yesterday at Long Island City by Coroner Nutt. Michael Carr and Frank Donnelly are charged with being implicated in the murder. Policeman Shelburg, who was with Sheridan shortly before the latter was killed, said that he and Sheridan were sitting on the stoop of Green's undertaking shop in Jackson avenue when Sheridan caught him by the arm and called his attention to two men who were coming out of Orchard street. The men walked toward Henry street. The witness recognized one of the men as Carr. Sheridan said to Shelburg:

You go around through Jane street and head them off," and Shelburg started off. He had gone only a short distance in Jane street when he heard pistol shots. Then he heard the sound of a whistle in the direction of Hunter avenue and Henry treet and running that way he saw a man looking out of a window. The man was William L. Wright of 79 Henry street.

Wright, who had blown the whistle, told Sheiburg that two men had run past the house and had gone into Radde street Shelburg ran up Radde street, but saw no shelburg ran up Radde street, but saw no one. Then he returned to the place where he had left Sheridan and almost stumbled over the detective's body. He lit a match and was shocked to find that the wounded man was Sheridan, who was almost at his last gasp. The witness hurried to an alarm box and sent a call for the patrol wagon, which soon arrived, but Sheridan died before it arrived.

Policeman John S. DeBoe, one of the men who were sent out in response to Shelburg's call, said that when he arrived men who were sent out in response to Sheiburg's call, said that when he arrived at the scene of the murder Sheiburg said to him: "Well, they've done poor John Sheridan." Witness asked Sheiburg which way the men had gone and then, after borrowing Sheiburg's revolver, started off, with Policeman Stohl, in pursuit of the murderers. The policeman went through Radde street. When they reached Jane street, Stohl stopped and said: "I'll bet this is one of Carr's jobs." DeBoe asked where Carr lived and Stohl said he lived at Crescent street and Wilbur avenue. The policemen then went to Carr's house. DeBoe said that when they reached there they lit a match in the hall. Carr's stepmother was lying on a lounge fully drossed. They saw a man on a lounge in an adjoining room. His shoes were off, but otherwise he was fully dressed. He was lying with his face toward the wall. DeBoe asked "Who is that?" and Stohl answered "That's Carr." They went to him and De Boe shook him by the shoulder, telling him to get up. Carr arose and sat in the middle of the lounge. He asked. "What's the to get up. Carr arose and sat in the middle of the lounge. He asked, "What's the matter?" and when told he was under arrest of the joinge. He said when told he was under arrest pretended to be surprised.

Mrs. Carr then entered the room and asked what was the matter. DeBoe told her that an officer had been shot. When she heard that Sheridan was the victim Mrs. Carr said: "My God! Sloppy Sheridan killed!" Then, turning toward Carr, she said: "Mike, if I thought you did this I'd be glad of it. I'm only sorry they didn't do Scabby-face Rooney with him."

Rooney is a detective and is attached to the Seventy-fourth precinct, and he and Sheridan used to work together. DeBoe said that Carr's hair was dishevelled and there were beads of perspiration on his forchead.

Robert McMahon of 341 Jackson avenue and he beard the shots fixed, and, looks is forehead. Robert McMahon of 341 Jackson avenue

Robert McMahon of 341 Jackson avenue said he heard the shots fired, and, looking out of a rear window, eaw two men run through Henry street. He identified Carr as one of the men. Detective Rooney had made plaster casts of the footprints made by the men in the mud when they were fleeing. He had the casts in court and showed that Donnelly's shoes fitted the casts made of one set of footprints. Donnelly had ratches on the tted the casts made of one set of foot-rints. Donnelly had patches on the soles f both shoes under the toes and these tted into the casts. The inquest will be resumed to-morrow.

ONE BID & CENTS, ONE 85. Two Brooklyn Offers for the Romoval of Ashes.

Two bids for the removal of ashes in Brooklyn were opened yesterday by Street Cleaning Commissioner Woodbury. Matthew T. Maher of 1227 Willoughby aversue offered to remove the ashes for 8 cents a offered to remove the ashes for 8 cents a cubic yard, while H. Milton Kennedy of Tempie Bar Building wanted 35 cents. Despite the wide difference in the proposals Commissioner Woodbury was inclined to recommend to the Board of Estimate the acceptance of the higher bid. He informed the toard that Maher had only four delivery stations, while Kennedy could command fifteen. Commissioner Woodcould command fifteen. CommisionerWood-bury and Borough President Swanstrom were appointed a committee to examine the merits of the two bids.

Improvements to Nurses' Settlement Club-Plans have been filed with the Building and lower Michigan, fair and warmer to-day. Bureau by Howell & Stokes, architects to merrow showers, light to fresh southwest for the reconstruction throughout of the for the reconstruction throughout of the three-story clubhouse of the Nurses' Set-tlement at 209 Henry street, owned by the Lewischn estate. The interior is to be rearranged, a light shaft put in, a new entrance and a club assembly room built

RUSSIAN WOMAN IN DISTRESS.

Mrs. Drummond Says She Is a Grand of Count Toistel, and Deserted. Mrs. William Drummond, born Pailchirik, a comeiy young Russian woman who says she is a grandnisce of Count Tolatol, applied for assistance to Poor-master Barck of Hoboken yesterday. She told a long story of suffering Mr. Drummond, she said, was a representative of New York importing house who met her Petersburg. was permitted to visit her at her parents' home. She married him after an achome. She married him after an acquaintance of two months, she paid, and they came to this country to live. Drummond, she said, told her that he had arranged to fit up a handsome home for her in this city, but when they arrived he took her to live in a boarding house. He visited her there once a week, she said, up to July 1, when he ceased his visits.

Her board not being paid thereaster, she was evicted. She found employment with a family on Hudson street. Hoboken, as a servant, she said, but was forced to quit fourteen months ago at a carraval in St

a ramily on Hudson street, Hobore 2, as a servant, she said, but was forced to quit work from nervousness brought on by worrying over her trouble. She cannot talk English. The poormaster gave her temporary assistance and promised to bring her case to the attention of the I ussian Consul.

THREW A WEIGHT AT A MINISTER Woman Fined for Assault on the thev. Herman von Hollen.

The Rev. Herman von Hollen, past or of Christ Church, German Lutheran, a 2 552 West Fiftieth street, appeared veste iday morning in the West Side police court as complainant against Mrs. Mary Coriker who keeps a confectionery store next door to the church. She was charged with disorderly conduct.

Mr. Von Hollen told Magistrate Crane that he had been bothered by small boys who threw stones through the wir klows of the church. New panes of glass, cost him $150 in one year, he said. On Sai harday boy threw a stone through a window ad the minister chased him into the con ectionery store.
"I was assaulted there," said the minister

*First some one hit me with a chib and then, as I was going out, the woma a. Mrs. Conker, threw a half-pound weight at me, striking me in the back. Here is the weight.

Magistrate Crane fined the we man $3 and warned her that if she appeared in court again she would go to the workho see.

BOY OFFERED A $2 BILIBE. Dorter Wanted Park Foreman to Let Him Peddle Candy. Michael Abrahams, a foreman of the Park Department, declared in the Yorkville police court yesterday that, Benjamin ville police court yesterday that, Benjamin Dorter, 14 years old, had offered him a $2 bribe to be allowed to peddle candy in Tompkins Squaxe Park Sunday night.

"He had a big box of candes and was doing a lively business when I chased him out of the park," the foremanisaid. "He came back and told me there was money in it for me if I let him sell. He then offered up $2, which I refused and caused his arrest."

The boy gave his address at 59 Willet street and said he did not think he was doing any harm in selling candy.

Magistrate Flammer fined him $2 for

JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT is of special/value to women. It helps nature to throw off dangerous catarrhal secretions.

INSIST upon JOHANN HOFP'S and you will not be imposed upon. No substi-tute is "just as good," BISNER & MENDELSON CO. of New York, Sole Agents.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Mrs. Winslew's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the guns, reduces inflammation, allays peth, cures wind coile, darrhess. 25c. a bottle.

DIED.

BALDWIN.—At the residence of his son, Stephen C. Baldwin, 127 Remsen st., Brooklyn, on Mon-day, July 28, 1902, of typhoid fever, the Rev, Stephen Livingston Baldwin, D. D., Recording Secretary of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the 68th year of his age. Funeral services will be held at the New York Avenue Church, corner of New York av. and Bergen st., Brooklyn, on Wednesday, July 80, 1802, at 2 P. M. Inserment in Greenwood. Boston papers please copy. UCE -At Dover, N. J., July 26, Mabel P. Buck, daughter of Peter C. Buck, in the 22d year of Blackwell st., Dover, on Tuesday, July 29, BRINGTON .-On Monday, July 28, at her home 112 Pranklin et., Astoria, L. L. Edith Bissett, poungest daughter of James M. and the late Adele E. Carrington.

Autoria, on Wednesday, July 50, at 11 A. M. Interment at New Haven, Conn. Kindly omit

ROSBY. -On July 27, 1909, George Crosby, in his 78th year. Puneral service at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Warner, 319 McDonough et., Brook lyn, on Tuesday evening, 8 P. M. Intermen

Danbury, Conn.

ACKAY.—Memorial service for the repose of the soul of the late John W. Mackay at St. Leo's Church, 29th st. East, near 5th av. Mass at 11 o'clock A. M., Tuesday, July 29. MILLS. On Sunday, July 27, at her residence 28 East Staty-first et., Mrs. M. A. Mills of the firm of Mills & Coleman, and mother of George B. Coleman. Funeral service at St. Patrick's Cathedral. 5th av., on Wednesday, July 50, at 10 A. M.

OSBORNE.—At Newark, N. J., on July 26, Eliza
Jane Rathbone, widow of the land Frederick
Allen Osborne, in her 72d year. QUACKENBUSH .- At Allenburst, N. J., Sunday, DUACKENBUSH.—At Allenburst, N. J., Sunday, July 27, John E. Quackenbush, in the 82d year of his age.

Funeral from the residence of his son, Abram Quackenbush, No. 244 West 150th st., Wednes-day, The 30th inst. at 1 o'clock. Friends are respectfully invited without further notice. Interment at convenience of family at Wood-Interment at convenience of family at wood-lawn Cemetery.

SAMMIS.—At Babylon, L. L. Monday, July 28, of paralysis, Antoinette Wheeler, widow of David S. S. Sammis, age 70 years.

Puneral from her late residence, on Wednesday, July 20, at 3 P. M. Trains have New York city 1.50, Procklyn 1.19.

HAFER -- On Saturday, July 26, at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., Simon Schafer, beloved hus-band of Clara C. Schafer, in the 60th year of Funeral private, from his late residence, 59 West on Puesday morning, July 29, at CHMID. - Suddenly on Saturday, July 26, George Frederick Schmid, aged 47 years, beloved busband of Maud A. Schmid. Friends and relatives respectfully invited to attend. Please omit flowers.

STIX .- On July 25, 1962, Louis Stix. Services at his late residence, No. 35 West 71st at., Tuesday, July 20, at had past 9 in the morning. Incineration private. Kindly omit

Citicura Resolvent

CUTICURA RESOLV. Coated, 60 doses, 25c.), are a new, tasteless, odourless, economical substitute for the celebrated liquid CUTI-CURA RESOLVENT, as well as for all other blood purifiers and humour cures. Each pill is equivalent to one teaspoonful of liquid RE-SOLVENT. Put up in screw-cap pocket vials, containing 60 doses, price, 25c. CUTICURA RESOLV-ENT PILLS are alterative, antiseptic, tonic, and digestive, and beyond question the purest, sweetest, most successful and economical blood and skin perifiers, humour cures, and toric-digestives yet compoundeá.

Complete Treatment $1

Complete external and internal treatment for every humour, consisting of Curicum Soar, 25c., to cleame the skin of crasts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle; CUTICURA CHEMENT, 50c., to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal; and Curt-CURA RESOLVENT PILES, 25c., to cool and cleanse the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, dis-figuring, itching, burning, and scaly skin, scalp, and blood humours, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, when all else fails.

CITICELA REMEDIES are sold throughout the world. British Depot: 2' S. Charlethouse Sq. London. French Dapot: 2 Kee de la Pain, Paris. Forress Daug and Quan. Conr., Sois Props., Buston, U. S. &.

Hermann Wilhelm Troebner, otherwi e Baron von Manteuffel, who was arrested for obtaining money under false pretences from ex-Mayor Cooper, was arraigned in the Tombs police court to-day. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to siz months in the workhouse by Magistrate

City Salaries to Be Sent Around by Check

Comptroller Grout announced yesterday that hereafter department employees in the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Rich-mond will get their monthly salaries by check instead of having to come to the pay-master's office for them.

AMUNEMENTS. MANHATTAN TO-DAYAL SHANNON'S 23D BAND TO-Night PAIN'S ANCIENT BOME AND ANCIENT BOME AND FIREWORKS TO SIGHT LAST PRIMROSE and SAT MAT DOCKSTADER'S Minstrels FLORODORA WITH Improve Cost CASINO Broadway EVG'S AT SILL "A CHINESE HONEYMOON"

MERALO THEATRE | SATURDAY ONLY.
The New THE DEFENDER MADISON SQ. GARDEN WEEK ADM. 50c JAPAN BY NIGHT JAPANESE TROUPE. Japanese Counte Opera MIKADO. Geisha Giris, Japanese Noveitles, d'Aquin's Orch.

PASTOR'S 1815 SIGNER MAYOUR CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CRANE BROS & BELMONT RI RE MINSTHELS MANLEY & HOSE. FRANK O'BRIEN. SANTOS-DI MONT Number 6 the ship that sailed around the Effei Tower on Exhibition Brighton Beach every day and evening previous to M. Santos flight Lemonstrations hourly. Admission, 25 cts. Children, 10 cts.

FLOATING ROOF GARDEN Every Eve. St. Grand Republic. Fri. Excepted. Conterno's 14th Regt. Band A Vaudeville. Leave W 129 st. Sp. m., W 20 st. S. 20 p. m., Battery 9 p. m. TERRACE GARDEN, ATH AND ANTH STS. her age. Funeral services from her late residence, West EVEN SIS MAI NAL FIS THE WILD ROSE

> CHERRY BLOSSOM GROVE, B'WAY, 45th st. VAUDEVILLE BILL OF UNCSUAL STRENGTH PARADISE ROOF GARDENS, 4rd St. Ev. 818.
> Bargain Mats. | 13 Big Vaudeville Acts & 20c. Wed. & Sat. | Creators & Band of 60.
> PROCTOR'S 125th St. 27d St. OPEN BIG COMEDY & VAUDE. ALL SUMMER.

DUSS Summer nights. Band Carnival Mid Arctic breezes. Eva sill Columbus Ave. and coth St. EDEN WORLD IN WAL New Groups

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS. For Girls and Young Women City and Country NOTRE DAME OF MARYLAND. College for Women and Preparatory School for Giris Teachers Specialists in every department. Lecturers of national reputation. System of educa-tion thatough and progressive Regular and elec-live courses Extensive grounds. Location un-surpassed. Suburb of Baltimore. Specious build-ings, completely equipped. Charles Street Ave-nue, Baltimore, Md.

The Loyola School, PREPARATORY COLEMBIATE DAY SCHOOL, under the direction of paners of the society of Jesus REOPLNS MONDAY, OCT. 6.

N. M. KINNON, S. J., Principal-W. J. ENNIS, S. J., Vice-Principal, N. Y. PREPARATORY SCHOOL For Children City and Country.

A SCHOOL FOR EXCEPTIONAL
NERVOUS AND DEFECTIVE CHILDREN.
MANIMILIAN F. E. GROSZMANN, Pd.D., Di rector. Bearding and day pupils. "Pineburst,
Fort Washington av. and Depot Jane, New York city

PRINCETON SENIOR, in high standing, will tutor pupils in the classics during summer in New York and Jersey coast resorts. TUTOR, 276 Pearl st., New York city.

The Miller School of Business,

ST JAMEN BUILDING, 1133 BROADWAY.
Enter any day of evening. No vacations Curvaint
Shorthand, Typewriting, Books,
"NO BETTER SCHOOL AT ANY PARCE."